

Split Screen Terror!

GOP doesn't want Hurricane Gustav on 1 side. Say blacks pushing grandma in plastic tub through the flood, while a quartet of pink straw-boaters from Des Moines harmonizes over prosperity--happy up, too, the usual bottom-feeding war message re pussy Democrats. & though mission could certainly be outsourced, a Paddle-Wheeler stocked with stale Little Debbies could take many partygoers down the Mississippi to New Orleans! (Working Whores should be loaded first, quietly, to patriotically service The Family Values Gang enroute.)
